

LATER FROM EUROPE.

CAPE RACE, October 2.—The steamship Saxonia arrived off this Cape at noon to-day, from Liverpool on the 23d of September.

The London Times says the fate of Charleston is virtually decided, and that its fall is only a question of time. The same paper says that Mr. Mason sent to Earl Russell, on Monday, a notification that he had been instructed to withdraw from England. Mr. Mason proceeds to Paris.

La France says a Federal steam corvette, had arrived at Brest, from Madeira, having been sent, with another Federal corvette, in pursuit of the Florida. She will leave Brest on the 23d, completely repaired, and proceed immediately to meet a second Federal corvette, which is at Lisbon, and attack her before she can be joined by the one at Brest, which is repairing.

La France says the Federal corvette Kearsage will be treated at Brest like the Florida. Both belligerents will enjoy the same rights and advantages.

The Confederate loan was quoted at 29½30 discount. The French rente, 67½ 80c. Consols, 93½93¼ for money.

On the 8th of October Napoleon will receive the Mexican deputation on its return from Trieste.

The Memorial Diplomatique says that England has entered into an engagement to acknowledge the present Mexican Government as soon as Maximilian shall announce to the deputation his final acceptance.

England and France will then immediately accredit official representatives.

England has promised to favor every means for the realization of the loan necessary to place Mexico in a position to fulfil her engagements abroad.

La France says if the three Powers make a common communication to Russia, it will be of a different character to an ordinary note, and in diplomatic language receive another name.

The Paris Journal considers the insertion in the Moniteur of the Polish memorandum, tantamount to a moral recognition as belligerents. At Frankfurt the Federal Diet appointed a committee upon the Holstein question, who reported in favor of Federal execution being carried out. The committee recommended the taking possession, by the Administration, of the entire Duchy, and the entry of 6,000 Hanoverian and Saxon troops. The votes of the Diet on the report will be taken October 1st. The Russian Emperor, in a speech, has promised to reform and extend privileges. Eleven iron-clad gunboats, with turrets, will be completed by spring. 20,000 men are reported stationed in Finland. The Czar received the King of the Greeks at St. Petersburg on the 20th of September.

No more leaves are given to naval officers.

The Russians were defeated on the 30th of August at Lutomerz. At Magovien, on the 12th, the Russians massacred a great many inhabitants of Lutomerz. The Russians had plundered several homes in Warsaw.

A Copenhagen dispatch says, as a first step towards placing the army on a war footing, the War Minister has ordered regimental lists to be filled up to the war strength by October.

T. Muller, charged with fraudulent bankruptcy and forgery in Saxony, is to be taken to that country for trial under the extradition treaty. The prisoner left Philadelphia yesterday morning in charge of a detective, who will deliver him into the custody of German authorities in Dresden.

It appears that the capture of a British steamer by the U. S. gunboat Seminole, heretofore reported by telegraph, was made in Mexican waters, and is therefore likely to lead to international difficulties.

COL. JENNISON, OF KANSAS.—The St. Joseph (Mo.) Gazette, referring to a speech made by Col. Jennison, at Elmwood, Kansas, to stimulate enlistments in his new regiment, says:

"Jennison will have no difficulty in raising his regiment, and Jennison says, after it is raised, he will have no difficulty in raising it."

This Jennison, our readers are aware, is a military marauder, actively engaged in the border warfare between Kansas and Missouri. We find in the last number of that admirable religious journal, the New York Independent, the following copy of what it calls "the terse reply" made by the profane Jennison to some candidates for the chaplaincy of his regiment. It perfectly illustrates the temper of radicalism:—[Nat. Int.]

HEADQUARTERS 15TH CAVALRY REGIMENT,

LEAVENWORTH, KANSAS, Sept. 15, 1863.

REV. GENTLEMEN: Your applications for the chaplaincy of the 15th are received. In opposition, however, to Scriptural injunctions, we are attending more closely just now to our temporal than our spiritual requirements, and are not in position to appoint a chaplain. We are commanded to watch and pray, and the 15th is inclined to the opinion that the more we have of the former the less we need of the latter. Fighting will be the business of the 15th and it will have little need of the "cloth," except it may be to shrike rebels who are going to the "kingdom come;" but if your fighting qualities are in excess of your pastoral capacities, we shall be happy to enlist you in the 15th. We have already two ministers in a single company, one of whom may be detailed at any time when the regiment requires the interposition of his services.

Most respectfully, C. R. JENNISON.

The Providence, (R. I.) Journal's commercial report of Wednesday says that the printed goods sales for the last two days have been 7,000 pieces 64 by 64 at 15½ cents. Holders now ask 16½ cents.

The N. Y. Post's Washington letter says that it seems to be understood that Secretary Chase will not call for another loan of $50,000,000 this season, certainly not until after the meeting of Congress.

A letter received by the Louisville Journal from its correspondent at Chattanooga, dated on the 23d inst., speaks with confidence. The writer says: "It is now, I think, settled that Gen. Rosecrans will hold his position in Chattanooga against all the combined forces of the Confederates brought from Charleston, Richmond, Mobile, &c."

The first National Bank of New York published yesterday its first report, which is considered highly favorable. The bank has only been in operation sixty days and will soon increase its capital.

The wool market in New York has been very active this week. The sales amount to 200,000 pounds fleece at 62@70 cents, besides large sales of foreign wool on private terms.

The emigration from Ireland continues very large and large numbers of laborers are coming to the U. S. from Canada; but laborers continue inadequate to the demand.

A commercial newspaper reporter in New York has made, during the last twelve months, $250,000 in stock speculations.

Nothing has been heard of at Havana of the missing steamer Mexico, but it was hoped, as she had three boats, that the passengers were picked up by some passing vessel.
